

"Solano Cemetery District is pleased to announce the opening of a new section at the Suisun-Fairfield Cemetery. The new section is located at the far end of the lawn section behind the office and will be known as Lawn M. This area will allow for upright markers where permitted based on sprinkler head locations. The surrounding area of Lawn M recently underwent a beautification project that has brought a sense of serenity and peace to this already desirable location."